AN ALL DAY FIGHT.

Spaniards Retreat After a Fierce Battle.

THE OFFICIAL REPORT.

Four Hundred Americans Killed or Wounded.

ENEMY'S OUTWORKS CAPTURED.

Sampson Bombards the City During the Land Attack-Our Troops Shelled by Cervera's Guns-Digging Intrenchments to Cover the Approach.

PLAYA DEL ESTE, Cuba, July 2 .-Major General Shafter yesterday began with great vigor the attack on the outer defenses of Santiago.

From three directions the American forces advanced toward the doomed

While General Lawton and General Wheeler were attacking Caney, northeast of Santiago, General Kent was advancing toward Aguadores. General Garcia, with his Cuban troops, at the same time approached Caney from the southeast, and the other divisions of the American army pressed toward San-tlago from the east, our forces thus presenting a solid front from the coast to General Linares' northern defenses.

Four members of the Twenty-first regiment of regulars were killed in the fighting between Sevilla and Aguadores, while 16 other Americans, all members of the Twenty-first, were wounded.

Both the American and Spanish fleets early joined in the battle. While Admiral Sampson's men were reducing the recently emplaced batteries at Aguadores, Admiral Cervera's fleet was hurling shells in the direction of the American and Cuban lines.

Two batteries of light artillery, acting under orders from Major General Shafter, who went to the front at the head of the troops, began the battle of Santiago by attacking Caney.

From this village a direct road leads into Santiago, and the advance of our forces will be irresistible when they gain possession of this road General "Joe" Wheeler, with a detachment of his cavalry command, and General Garcia, with his Cuban troops, quickly joined General Lawton's men in the advance upon Canes.

The Spaniards for a time fought desperately to prevent Caney from falling into the hands of our forces. It was a vain effort.

Before the fighting had been long under way the American and Cuban forces gained advanced ground. Foot by foot the enemy was driven back into the vil-It was evident after the first hour's fighting that General Shafter accurately had gauged the strength of the enemy and that he would be able to drive the Spaniards into Santiago at his pleasure It was with difficulty that the commanding officers restrained the ardor of our troops until the hour for beginning the attack came. The enthusiasm of the American forces was intense, and their spirit quickly spread to the Cuban troops. All have shared the belief of General Shafter that Santiago could be taken by a sharp, persistent attack, and they have been impatient to advance.

Brigadier General Kent, who commands the center of the general line of attack, started the Twenty-first regiment of regulars toward Aguadores at the same hour General Lawton's men advanced toward Caney. Upon these troops fell the brunt of the battle to the southeast of Santiago during the early hours of the day.

There was desperate fighting about Aguadores. Acting under orders from General Linares, the Spaniards at that point returned the American fire with a fury that aroused in our men the fiercest determination.

They boldly faced the enemy's fire holding their ground tenaciously and pressing forward whenever an opportunity to gain an advanced footing pre-

In their operations about Aguadores the Americans were greatly emouraged by the work of the fleet, which poured a heavy fire into the lines of the Span-

Admiral Sampson ordered the New York, Gloucester and Suwannee to attack the batteries recently placed to the east of Morro. The vessels engaged the batteries at short range and left only the scarred billside to show where the batteries had been located.

The Massachusetts and the New York then opened with their big guns, plunging a heavy fire into the enemy's lines. Common shell and reduced charges were ized the enemy's ranks. The shells wer fired at a high elevation, so as to clear the towering coast line ridge.

The Newark joined the fleet in the morning, and at noon the Iowa steamed within 1,000 yards of Morro Castle. Admiral Sampson had signaled from the flagship for the Iowa to engage Morro, but a few moments later, just as the Iowa was about to open fire, the annulling pennant was holsted.

The Harvard arrived at Altares yes terday morning with 1,800 Michigan volunteers. They were hurried ashore and hastened forward to join the American As the enemy was pressed back toward Santiago, both at Caney and at Aguadores, the progress of our forces was in entire harmony with the plans of General Shafter. Our lines thus became more closely knit, and now the Americans and Cubans present a continuous front from the southeast to the north of the city.

On the right at El Caney now is General H. W. Lawton, with three brigades the First, under Colonel J. J. Vanhorn, commanding the Eighth United States artillery and Twenty-second United States infantry, and the Second Massachusetts, Colonel E. P. Clark commanding.

The Second brigade is composed of the First, Fourth and Twenty-fifth United States infantry.

The Third brigade, under General A. R. Chaffee, is composed of the Seventh, Twelfth and Seventeenth United States

General Joseph Wheeler, with four light batteries, is strung out in the rear of Lawton's division. General S. B. M. Young is attached to General Wheeler's command. This cavalry force is dismounted and is composed of eight troops of the First cavalry, eight troops of the Third, eight troops of the Sixth, eight troops of the Ninth and eight troops of the Tenth.

On the left Lawton; in the center, resting on the second crossing of the river Guama, just back of Sevilla, and moving toward Aguadores, is a force composed of the First brigade, under General H. S. Hawkins, with the Sixteenth and the Sixth United States infantry; the Seventy-first New York, under Colonel Wallace Downes. The Second brigade, Colonel Pierson commanding; Second United States infantry, Tenth United States infantry and Twenty-first United States infantry. Third brigade, Colonel Worth commanding-Ninth, Thirteenth and Twenty-fourth United States infantry.

General Bates has the Thirty-third Michigan, Colonel Charles L. Boynton commanding, and a battalion of the Thirty-fourth Michigan, Colonel John P. Peterman commanding.

SHAFTER REPORTS. Carried the Enemy's Outer Works-Out

Casualties Over Four Hundred. WASHINGTON, July 2.-The following dispatch from Major General Shafter, dated Siboney, July 1, was received by the president about 1 o'clock this morning: "Had a heavy engagement today, which lasted from 8 a. m. till sundown. "We carried their outer works and are now in possession of them. There is now about three-quarters of a mile open country between my lines and city.

'By morning troops will be intrenched and considerable augmentation of forces will be there.

"General Lawton's division and General Bates' brigade, which have been engaged all day in carrying El Caney, which was accomplished at 4 p. m., will be in line and in front of Santiago during the night.

"I regret to say that our casualties will be about 400 Of these not many are killed."

A Successful Reconnoissance From the Aerial Lookout.

WASHINGTON, July 2. - General Greely has received the following dispatch from Lieutenant Colonel Allen in charge of the telegraph service of Gen eral Shafter's army at Siboney

"Saw baltoon up near Sannago last night from flagship of Admiral Sampson, where I was observing it "

General Miles also received another dispatch, sent quite early yesterday morning from Shafter's hadquarters saying that the big military all ion was then high in the air and was giving opportunity for observation wer a great sweep of country. This in itself was of incalculable value to our troops Brave reconnoissances had been made, but these were of little valu compared to what could be seen from a balloon a mile or more in the air, commanding : radius of observation of from 20 to 40 miles with powerful telescopes.

This was the first actual use of a balloon by the American army in the present war, and the commanding genera set much store on the information balloons would give as to exact location of all the Spanish forces their points of concentration, the detenses, the location of Cervera's warships in the harbor and possibly the progress of Spanish re-enforcements,

DUN'S REVIEW.

Only Three Millions In Follures For the Quarter Due to the War.

NEW YORK, July 1.-R G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The second quarter of the year closes with most encouraging returns. Failures have been a little larger than in the first quarter of the year, whereas a decrease of 6.2 per cent might have been expected, from experience of the past ten years, but with that allowance a difference of only $3 500,000 can be charged to war and fears of war, whereas solvent payments through clearing houses for the quarter were over $15,-600,000,000. ### HISTORY OF A MONTH'S CAMPAIGN.

Army and Navy Working Together For One End Since the Cape Verde Fleet Took Refuge In the Cuban Port.

WASHINGTON, July 2.-The attack on Santiago yesterday was the culmination of the aggressive policy which the administration adopted the moment the Spanish fleet was definitely located by the scoutships of Admiral Sampson's equadron. The arrival of Cervera's squadron at Bantiago on May 20 was the signal for the drawing in of the net about Cuba and the concentration of offensive measures against Santiago. The army had been unable to take transports for Cuba while the illusive Spanish fleet was still at sea, and until this will o' the wisp had been definitely located the plans of the war board were in abey-

A great deal of difficulty was experienced in locating the Spanish fleet, and even after it had been reported several times in Santiago harbor the officials would not believe that the wily Spaniard had been caught until the bravery of American officers in spying in the vicinity of the land locked harbor elicited the certain knowledge of havy, working in hearty accord, prepared for the destruction or capture of the city and the fleet.

The fermation of the harbor made it impossible to see very far inside, and fold game of war a sharp watch had to be kept at the harbor's mouth to prevent the Spanish admiral's escape.

on May 27 to be off the mouth of the harbor. Every measure was taken to cut Cervera off from supplies, the sea end of the affair being looked after by the American commodore, the land end by the Cubans, who were prepared for just this plan by the visit of Lieutenant Rowan to General Garcia.

As the fact came home to the Washington officials that Cervera really was within the harbor, they began to concentrate their efforts on this particular Everything was ready for actual fighting. The St. Paul made a dash a short distance into the harbor on May 30, and her commander, Captain Sigsbee, easily made out Spain's fast, heavily armored cruisers and torpedo boats anchored in the harbor.

Plans were then made for General Shafter to land 15,000 men near Santiago for the purpose of taking the doomed city, already a heavy sufferer from starvation.

A great deal of hard work was put in at Tampa, Fla., preparing the army for More bombardments followed, but little could be done against Morro Castle because Hobson and his men had been confined in it Later however, they were removed to the city itself, and the destruction of the forts was continued. On June 8 another big bombardment followed, and the Cubans made a land attack but the bombardment had to be renewed again and again as the Spaniards continued to make repairs and defensive preparations

Next attention was turned to Baiquiri a port near Santiago which was hombarded The Parther landed a battalion of marines at that point and they held their position against a vigorous bushwhacking warfare on the part of the Spanish troops, of whom great numbers

THE ST. PAUL IN PORT

Story of Her Encounter With the Terror.

TORPEDO BOAT BADLY DISABLED.

Engineer Eilled and Many of Her Crew Injured-What the Liner Has Been Dolug Since She Lett For the Front-Officers Reticent,

NEW YORK, July 2.-The St. Paul arrived in port last night and anchored off Tompkinsville at about 6 o'clock. She left Mole St. Nicholas early last Tuesday and comes here for coal, ammunition and stores, also to have some slight repairs to her starboard engine, and will go to the navy yard. Captain inaccessible to press representatives anchored, even permission to board the formation was obtained nevertheless, and the St. Paul War Budget, the journal of the ship, edited by James White and William C. Meek and printed by Fred C. Zinn, members of the crew. gives very interesting news of what the St. Paul has been doing since she left New York on June 8, a little over three weeks ago.

The St Paul's great exploit on the trip was disabling the Spanish torpedo boat Terror off the harber of San Juan. Porto Rico, and, being regarded so by the crew, the account of it occupies the first place on the first page. When the cruiser Isabel II came out of the harbor of San Juan at about noon of June 22, covering the Terror, which was with her, from sight, the Spaniards thought that it was the St. Louis, which had been there a short time before and known to have a small armament, and not the St. Paul which was going to be

In the expectation of seeing a fine prize brought into port the Spaniards gathered in great crowds along the harbor wall to see it. The engagement lasted a little over half an hour, during three of them hitting the Terror, putting a hole through her, smashing one of her engines, killing the chief engineer and another man, taking off the legs of a small vessels were lashed to her sides to prevent her sinking, while a tugboat towed her in.

Though the action with the Terror is mentioned first, it was one of the last events of the cruise. On last Sunday she was relieved by the Yosemite, which took her place in blockading San Juan. while she proceeded to Mole St. Nicholas, where she got her orders to proceed to New York. The health of the crew of the St. Paul, which numbers 450 men exclusive of officers, is excellent, not a case of serious illness being reported. The men say that the weather has been hot in West Indian waters, but they found New York was quite as warm.

rines landed at Camp McCalla had a terribly tough time from lack of food; that though the marines had themselves raised $2,000 for better food than hardtack and for ice, no supply ship had arrived when the St. Paul was last there When the St. Paul left New York on June 8, after going to Mole St. Nicholas she joined Admiral Sampson's fleet off Santiago and took part in the bombardment at Guantanamo bay, her effective work-being to scatter Spanish cavalry which had gathered on the bank of a river emptying into the bay after the final defeat of the Spanish by the marines on the 14th. The following is the account given in The Budget of the bombardment of Fort Cavo del Toro and

During the heat of the battle general quarters was sounded on the St. Paul. A body of Spanish cavalry had been sighted, marching along the shore. A solid shot from our after 5 inch gun, in charge of Ensign Powelson, smashed the cavalry and scattered them. Lieutenant Commander Briggs then took the forward port Hotchkiss and sent some "hot stuff" after the stragglers. In the meantime the Texas and Marblehead demolished the fort as well as a large sugar refinery near by. As the Texas drew abeam of the St. Paul after the hattle Captain Sigsbee hailed Captain Philip with the query, "How many men have you hurt?" Captain Philip

From June 23 the St. Paul continued blockading San Juan until June 26, when she was relieved by the Yosemite. On the 27th she arrived at Mole St. Nicholas, where she anchored for the night On the 28th she left Mole St Nicholas en route for New York at full speed, where she arrived yesterday.

DEWEY HEARD FROM.

Re-enforcements Had Not Reached Manila on June 27. WASHINGTON, July 2-While not prolix in his utterances, Admiral Dewey loses no opportunity to keep the navy department informed of the state of atlans at Man.la. A dispatch came from him yesterday, dated Cavite, June 27, reporting that conditions remain practically unchanged, but not recording the arrival of his re-enforcements. He had some other matters of interest to communicate, but they were not of a character that could be properly made pubhe at this stage. For one thing it can be stated that Admiral Dewey has been particular to avoid committing his government to any particular line of action respecting the future of the Philippines or to do anything that would embarrass General Merritt in framing a policy to meet needs of the case when he arrives. He has made no official pledges to the insurgent leader, though he has not hesitated to openly praise his good politics and his accomplishments.

So far as the navy department knows the Cadiz Seet is still at Port Said, unable to cod but it is taking no chances on its course and is steadily pressing dence of this purpose was made visible yesterday in the packing and forward-

Good News and Much of It. Low Priced Summer Fabrics.

If hargains news be good news this story will natify the head line. There is much in that pusify the head line. There is much in that which follows that has bever been printed before; prices given that are wholly without precedent and on the goods which as you know are not only merely reliable, but desirable, stylish, largely exclusive in pattern and fairly priced before this price cutting started Yard. We know of no such Organdie offering as this in this or any other season. It includes many patterns of this season's designs printed on white grounds. A chief feature of the bargains is the especial choiceness of the patterns. They are exquisite. These goods are 15c value; take them for per yard 12½c.

Cotton Dress Stuffs Away Under

We fully expect that the announcement of this list of goods will make a sensation. It is certainly intended to do so, if there is any force in broken price records it will do so, for here are many instances of the lowest price notch ever reached on equal qualities. And this in the full tide of the demand moreover and more important, excellent goods, good patterns, wanted styles, colors you like and designs that attract you, what's the use of a low price on a pattern you don't want. These are not of that class.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS IN SULLI-VAN COUNTY ARE DOING. .

The News from All Parts of the County -Many Matters of Interest Condensed from Our Sullivan Exchanges and Contributed by Wide-Awake Correspon-

-Ex-Supervisor J. W. Darbee, of Rockland, carries a memento of the battle of Bentonville, fought March 19th, 1865, between the southern army, under Gen. Joe Johnston, and the Union forces, composed of the 14th and 20th corps, under Gen. Slocuns. It is one of the last cartridges distributed to the brigade of which thd 143d Regiment was a part. The sixth and final charge of Johnston's columns was repulsed by the fire from our regiment, which held the centre through the flercely fought day. Mr. Darbee had two cartridges left when the battle was concluded, and he brought them home. The one which he brought into the Watchman, this week, would undoubtedty kill a man yet if properly used.-Watchman.

-Sheriff Fulton, on Wednesday, levied on the store goods and other personal property of George H. Acklam, in the willage of Bethel, under executions in favor of the sisters of the defendant, Mary E. Acklam and Amelia Acklam. The judgments were each $1,016.38. The Sheriff left Deputy John R. Rice in charge of the property and to oversee the making of an inventory .- Watch-

-C. O. Segar, while working on Capt. Stephenson's wagon house, near White Lake, a few days ago, fell about fifteen feet and was badly bruised and cut, but fortunately no bones were broken.

---Petty thieyes have been busy in the vicinity of White Lake. A few nights ago they stole a set of harness and some feed from J. F. Calbreath's barn, and several bags of feed from W. C. Kinnie's

-Invitations have been issued for the marriage of W. B. Hand and Miss Jennie Rice, of Parksville, in the M. E. Church there, Wednesday, July 6th, at 1 c clock.

-George Yatho of the town of Tusten, convicted of selling bad whiskey without a tax certificate, was fined $200 by Judge Smith. His counsel argued that as his wife had taken out a certificate since the sale complained of, the ends of justice would be served by suspending sentence. The fact that bad whiskey had been sold, seemed however, to count against the old man and he was fined as above stated.

-Hiram Hitt charged with selling property covered by a chattel mortgage given to Maybee & Gregory, of Roscoe, was acquitted when tried in County Court at Monticello. His defence was that he had Gregory's permission to sell the property.

-Monticello's trustees have appointed James Dill night watchman. -J. H. Waller, of Monticello, has been appointed Government store keeper at Monticello. -It is proposed after the summer's farmer's picuic in the vicinity of Tampa. -The Hudson River Telephone Co. is securing many subscribers for the local exchange it proposes to establish in Monticello. -Friday night several of our citizens eaw two balls of fire passing through the air, at different hours, which were thought to be fireworks, but upon investigation they proved to be small meteors or shooting stars. The first occurred at 8:20 and landed on the hill between here and Liberty, the seond at 10 o'clock and brought up near Emmonsville .- Livingston Manor Ensign.

-The Hurleyville correspondent of the Ensign says that Mis Cora O'Neil of Middletown, is stopping at the Purvis House for the summer.

-Baled hay in considerable quantities is being shipped from the western part of the county to the New York market.

-Churles T. Curtis, of Callicoon Depot, has been appointed district deputy for the sixteenth Masonic district comprising the counties of Sullivan and Delaware. —Stone is being quarried for the abutments of the bridge across the Delaware at Callicoon Depot and the work of crecting them will begin next week.

-The Board of Health of the town of Thompson has forbidden bathing in Kiamesha Lake from which Monticello gets its water supply. -Papers of naturalization were issued to John Gerson, Elis Gerson and Patrick F. Ford in the County Court, Tuesday.

-Rev. Eward F. Dewey, of Walton, father of Mrs. E. C. Royce, formerly oi Middletown, has been visiting relatives and friends in the vicinity of Monticello, where his childhood was spent. He was in search of a large portrait of his father's brother, Dr. Julius Dewey, of Montpelier, Vt., the sire of Admiral George Dewey. The portrait used to grace the sitting room of his father, Capt. Solomon Dewey, when the family resided near Bridgeville. Mr. Dewey served for a time in the ranks of the 54th N. Y. V., and was then made chaplain of the regiment. -The summerschool for teachers which E. A. Fuller and his brother, George W. Fuller, are conducting at Roscoe has a goodly number of pupils who are making good progress.

-The Review says that eel spearing is becoming popular with Rockland fishermen and a number of large ones have been captured.

-Granville Burton, of Lew Beach, was badly hurt recently, by being thrown from his wagon by the sudden starting

The Mysterious and Until my Spectre

Seen by a Geshen Lit ckey, From the Independent Re Bican.

To the disembodied spire of the late John McLaughry and "Neze" Cable there has been added another mysterious and uncanny visitor from the realm of the supernatural to make life a burden for the colored people of Goshen. The latest manifestation is in the shape of a little man, not more than two feet high, dressed in white. It recently appeared to a young colored man as he was bomeward bound in the small hours of the morning. He encountered it near where the Pine Island Branch first crosses West Main *treet and after a moment's hesitation claims to have boldly started in pursuit. It was a merry chase the little man led him, around buildings and through back yards, and when the little man finally disappeared it was with great suddenness and on the air there floated a distinet odor of brimstone. As an Ethiorian utopia Goshen seems to be some of its well established reputa

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

-July 4-Picnic of Ontario Hose Co . No. 5, at Mannerchor Park, afternoon and evening. -July 4-Excarsion to New York, via Eric Railroad.

Yesterday was the hottest July day New York city has had since 1876. In the afternoon the Herald's thermoneter stood at 106° The signal service record, taken on top of a high building, was much lower.

New issues bring about strange politi cal combinations. Grover Cleveland,-William J. Bryan, Senator Morrill and Speaker Reed are all agreed in opposing Hawanan annexation and the policy of territorial extension. Six months ago no one would have believed that these men could ever meet on a common ground.

It is announced that the War Board has decided not to dispatch Commodore Watson's fleet in pursuit of Camara until after the Spanish fleet at Santiago has been destroyed. This seems like a very wise move for the hattleships Oregon and lowa and all the other ships may be needed at Santiago and Camara's ships are not making such rapid progress that there need be any haste in hunting them

As a result of a combination formed by resist the strike of the sterotypers employed in their offices, not a single Eng-SI lish paper was printed in the city yesterst.day, and only one German paper ap-Copeared. The papers also shut off their elegraph service, for there was no use in Laaying for news that they could not use

At las troops r language of the war revenue act for Sans to indicate that it was the in-Tention of its framers to have the penny stamp on shipping receipts paid for by the railroad and express companies. The railroads generally have accepted this view of the law, but the express companies say that the burden is too great for them to assume since it will amount to about forty per cent. of their net receipts and they have started out by demanding that it be paid by shippers. This demand has already caused much friction and many ship; ers in New York and other cities have refused to pay for the stamps and a movement is already on foot to have the matter taken into the courts that they may decide by whom the stamps shall be affixed.

WON BY THE QUAKERS.

Pennsylvania's Crew Won the Varsity Race, Cornell Second.

SARATOGA, July 2 .- The University of Pennsylvania crew, pulling the only paper shell used in the mace, won the varsity race by three and a bali lengths in the remarkably good have of 15 1512. Cornell got into second place after a lively sprint with Wiscord and beat the Westerners nearly a letter. Columbia paddled across the live four and a ball lengths behind Wisconlin.

The quadrangular contest developed two surprises. Pennsyvania s victory over Cornell and Wisconsin's heading of the others all through the first mile and the remarkably good work of the crew from the standpoint of the disadvantages which the men suffered in their long journey so near the time of the race and in making a noble struggle for hone able place against so worthy an advertary. Columbia's finish was a disappointment rather than a surprise, her place in early speculations having been so uncertain, Cornell's time was 16 m 1 Wisconsi, 16 m 7, Columbia 16 m 21 These are the official figures.

Cubans Unable to Prevent Pando Reaching the City.

HEAVY LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES IN YESTERDAY'S BATTLE.

AT THE FRONT, 10 p. m., Friday .- The Spanish loss is estimated at 1,200 dead. Our loss, when full returns are received, approximates fully one thousand killed and wounded. The number of the missing is greater than at first supposed.

Spanish shells did great execution and they had the great advantage of smokeless powder.

The San Juan blockhouse was captured after a heroic struggle. The road is now open for the taking of Morro Castle, and after that the way will be comparatively clear.

THE BATTLE AT SANTIAGO.

Entire Reserves Ordered to the Front-Our Losses Menvy-An Impressive

Siboney, Friday, 8 p. m. (delayed in transmission).—At this hour fighting still continues. The entire reserves of the American army have been ordered to the front at once, apparently with the intention of forcing Santiago. The troops have nearly advanced to the city, but the fortifications are very strong. Our losses are heavy. An officer from the field estimates our killed and wounded at over a thousand. Shells, supposedly from the Spanish fleet, did heavy execution among our troops. During a lull in the fighting an impressive incident occurred. The 21st Infantry was in front, suffering heavy loss from the Spanish fire, but the men sang "The Star Bangled Banner," even the wounded joining in the song.

SPANISH REINFORCEMENTS REACH SANTIAGO.

NEW YORK, July 2.-The Evening World has a copyrighted dispatch from Playa Dei Este which says that Gen. Garcia is authority for the statement that Gen. Pando has succeeded in reaching Santiago with 6,000 men The Cubans were unable to stop his progress to reinforce the Spanish in Santiago de

THE FRESHMAN RACE.

Easy Winner-Columb a Second.

SARATOGA, July 2 -- Cornell won the Freshman race, this morning. Columbia was second by a beautiful spurt made within ten vards of the line Cornell's lead at the finish was two and one-half lengths.

Cornell's youngsters led from the moment the pistol barked, rowing a beautiful thirty-two stroke. Coming into the last haif mile, Columbia's boat, which was many lengths to the rear of Pennsylvania, made a fine spurt and at the same time the life seemed to die out of the Quakers Cornell's time at the fluish, 10 m 513-5, Columbia 11 m 12, Pennsylvania 11 m 13. The start was delayed until 9 15.

A BICYCLIST BADLY HURT

Wishington, July 2.—Griffin Halstead, son of Hon Murtha Halstead and chief page of the House of Representatives, met with a serious cycle accident at International Park, to-day He was making an attempt to lower the quartermile paced record when the triplet which was pacing him accidentally crowded him with terific force into the fence.

Halstead struck the railing head down and was hurled back wark on the embankment. His front teeth were all broken off, a long gash was cut in his chin, and his arms, legs and back severely bruised and lacerated. Halstead will never race again He was one of the speediest cyclists in the country.

NEEDS A HOSPITAL SHIP.

Washington, July 2 .- General Shafter has informed the War Department that his first estimate of losses, yesterday, was probably too low, but he makes no new estimate.

In his dispatch about losses General Shafter says. A large and thoroughly equipped hospital ship should be sent here at once to care for the wounded. The chief surgeon says he bas use for rty more medical officers. Ship a anch and boats for conveying the Spanish Batteries obsessed Enriy is Yesterday's Battle-Enemy Used Smeke-Jew Fewder Which Cave Them a Great Advantage-Bravery of Our Troops. NEW YORK, July 2.-The Evening

World has the following. EL Paso, near Santiago de Cuba, Noon Friday.-The first artillery fight of the campaign has just ended by the silencing of the Spanish batteries. The wounded are being picked up as this despatch is General Lawton's division bivouacked near Caneva, last night, and at 7 this morning there was a sullen "boom." It was the first shot from Capron's battery fired to avenge the killing of his son. The Spanish answered promptly. At 8:15, Grimes' battery opened on the Spanish troops to the right of San Juan blockhouse. Common powder was used, and our troops were a fine target for the Spanish field battery which was probably served by Cervera's marines, judging by the accuracy of its aim. While our smoke gave the enemy the range, Grimes could only approximately locate the enemy's guns which used smokeless powder, but, satisfied as to the Spanish position, our men worked like mad. The Spanish fire gradually slackened and in less than an hour ceased altogether.

Battery A, Second Artillery, deserves great credit for the victory, for it was a case of blindness against sight.

The officers give the battery's loss as two privates killed and four non-commissioned officers wounded.

The battery was supported by Rough Riders, about a hundred Cubans with Hotchkiss, detachment of the Tenth Cavalry and a squad from Company C, Second Cavalry. Most of the Spanish shells flew low over the crest of the battery's position and exploded. The rough riders had about ten wounded, among them R. Champlain. The Cuban leader, Gonezales, reports that the Cubans had twenty killed and wounded. Details of Lawton's losses have not arrived.

In the fighting at San Juan a Spanish shell burst in the midst of Capt Duritier's Battery, First Artillery, wounding several, Private Samuel Barr being one. Roosevelt's Rough Riders were also in this fight and bore themselves with as much credit as on last Friday. Several Rough Riders were wounded, among them the following. S. G. Devere, sergeant, Troop K, W. A. Armstrong, corporal, Troop J; McSparron, corporal, Troop G; Alvin C. Ash, private, Troop G; W. Freeman, private, Troop F; Benj. A. Long, private, Troop K; Mason Mitchell, private, Troop K, V. D. Horton, a corporal in Troop I, Third U. S. Cavalry, was also wounded.

READY FOR THE START.

First Regiment Will_Leave Fort Hamilton, Tuesday, if Transportation Ar-PAREMENTS Are Nade.

The stream of visitors to the camp of the let New York at Fort Hamilton: continues and the daily mail has reached large proportions. Lieutenant Colonel Stackpole says that his command will be in perfect readiness to start for Manila. on Tuesday, and that the only thing that can delay it will be the fact that Transportation is not ready. Bids for transportation were opened at the office of the department quartermaster in New York, Friday, and it is the intention of the authorities to move the regiment, on Tuesday, if possible.

A good many men have received leave of absence for thirty-six hours for the purpose of going home. All leaves, however, expire at 6 a. m., Monday. Leave is granted only to those men presenting the best excuses. If every application was granted there wouldn't be even a corporal's guard left in camp.

All of the officers have received their new Khaki uniforms, but those for the men have not been received. The coat is a blouse, cut in the style of a Norfolk jacket. The cloth is yellow, a kind of a twill, firmly woven and sostrong that it is practically impossible to tear it. The pockets have flaps of light blue and the shoulder straps are of the same color. The trousers have no stripe.

If the regiment leaves on Tuesday the new r cruits will have to go without uniforms and without arms.

Ed. Gould, the tinsmith, son of ex-Capt-T. B. Goald, fell from the roof of Mrs. Harns' house, nex- to Bennett's Hotel in Bloomingburgh, Friday afternoon, and received painful and serious injuries. Dr. Bull thinks two ribs, broken from the back bone, are theonly broken bones and tha his patient may recover.

Mr. Gould, who was formerly employed by Brick & Clark and later was a a conduct r on the electric road, recently opened a shop at Bloomingburgh. He was at work on a roof there when he lost his footing and fell thirty feet. He was discovered soon after the accident and removed to Bennett's hotel, where

The men started in to do him up and he called for help and the Port Jervis boys, without a moment's hesitation, threw his assailants down the stairs.

Reat Prostrations at Fort Mamilton.

Friday was the hottest day that the 24th has experienced since it has been stationed at Fort Hamilton. Fourteen members of the battalion succumbed to the heat, but none of the prostrations are regarded as serious. PACID IN A MUIDMELL

Some Practical Suggestions Which Fully Explain the Principles of Read Construction.

The following practical suggestions, from the Municipal World, concisely explain the principles of road construction, dealing especially with the formstion and care of gravel roads.

1. Every good road has two essential features: (a) A thoroughly dry foundation; (b) A smooth, hard, waterproof surface covering.

2. The foundation is the natural subsoil, "the dirt road," which must be kept dry by good drainage.

3. The surface covering is generally a coating of gravel or broken stone, which should be put on the road in such a way that it will not, in wet weather, be churned up and mixed with the earth beneath. That is, it should form a distinct coating.

4. To accomplish this (a), the gravel or stone should contain very little sand or clay-it should be clean. (b) The road must be crowned or rounded in the center so as to shed the water to the open drains. (c) Ruts must not be allowed to form, as they prevent water passing to the open drains. (d) The open drains must have a sufficient fall and free outlet, so that the water will not stand in them but will be carried away immediately. (e) Tile underdrains should be laid wherever the open drains are not sufficient and the ground has a moist or wet appearance, with a tendency to absorb the gravel and rut readily. By this means the foundation is made dry.

5. Do not leave the gravel or stone just as it drops from the wagon, but spread it so that travel will at once pass over and consolidate it before the fall rains.

6. Keep the road metal raked or scraped into the wheel or borse tracks until consolidated.

7. Grade and crown the road before putting on gravel or stone.

8. If a grading machine is available, grade the roads which you intend to gravel before the time of statute labor, and use the statute labor as far as possible in drawing gravel.

9. A fair crown for gravel roads on evel ground is one inch of rise to each 'oot of width from the side to the cen-

10 The roads on hills should have a teater crown than on level ground, therwise the water will follow the sheel tracks and create deep ruts instead of passing to the side drains. One and one-balf-inches to the footfrom the side to center will be sufficient.

11. Repair old gravel roads which have a hard center, but too little crown and high, square shoulders, by cutting off the shoulders, turning the material outward and placing new gravel or stone in the center. Do not cover the old gravel foundation with the mixture of earth, sod and fine gravel of which the shoulders are composed. The shoulders can be most easily cut off by means of a grading machine.

12. A width of 24 feet between ditches will meet most conditions, with the cen-'ral 8 feet graveled.

13. Wherever water stands on the roadway or by the roadside or wherever the ground remains moist or is swampy in spring and fall, better drainage is needed.

14. Look over the road under your charge after beavy rains and during spring freshets. The work of a few minutes in freeing drains from obstrucion or diverting a current of water into a proper channel may become the work of days if neglected.

15. Surface water should be disposed of in small quantities; great accumulations are hard to handle and are destructive. Obtain outlets into natural watercourses as often as possible.

16. Instead of having deep, open litches to underdrain the road and dry the foundation, use tile.

17 Give culverts a good fall and free sutlet so that water will not freeze in

18. In taking gravel from the pit, see hat precautions are taken to draw only ican material. Do not let the face of he pit be scraped down, mixing clay, sind and turf with good gravel. There is a tendency to draw dirty gravel, as it is carier to handle. 19. Gravel which retains a perpendicular face in the pit in the spring, and shows no trace of allpping, is generally it for use on the road without treatnent. Dirty gravel should be screened.

20 Plan and lay out the work before alling out the men. 21. When preparing plans keep the work of succeeding years in view. 22. Call out for each day only such a number of men and teams as can be properly directed.

23 In laying out the work, estimate on a full day's work from each man and see that it is performed. Specify the number of loads of gravel to constitute a day's work. Every wagon box should hold a quarter of a cord.

24 Make all returns clearly, showing who have done their work and who have 25. Make early arrangements for having on the ground when required, and in good repair, all implements and tools to be used in the performance of statute 26. Do all work with a view to permanence and dumbility. In a State of Nature.

The government road commissioner of Canada, in a recent address, advised the people of the large town in which he spoke to leave their roads alone. He said that they could not possibly get any worse, and, if they were not touched, nature might perhaps improve

A PIGEON'S DEVOTION.

Mother Dird Posked Through a Wooden Wall to Food and Reach Her Young One.

In the animal kingdom there are many strong examples of mother love, and the birds are particularly noted for displaying it. A remarkable instance of this maternal instinct was recently noticed near Elwood, Jud. A mother pigeon whose young one had mysteriously disappeared searched unceasingly for weeks for the little one, and one day last December was seen flying violently against the side of a frame building in the city.

Each time she came in contact with the house she chipped off a small bit of wood with her bill. For nearly two days the old bird kept this practice up, often during that time falling exhausted from the repeated shocks and fatigue. In the afternoon of the second day she had pecked a hole in the wall, the wood of which was old and some from the weather. This bole was large enough to admit a man's hand, and through this the mother bird went and Every time she entered she carried grain or seeds or grass. Some curious people investigated the hole while she was absent, and there they found the little lost pigeon, just below the hole, wedged in between the weather boards. For two days more the bird continued to bring the little one food, and would stay fluttering near the hole, chirruping and trying to cheer the little prisoner up. Many times it entered and seemed to be trying to extricate its young one, but it could not succeed in doing so, try as it would. The prisoner had flown into the building, which was empty, and managed to get between the weather boarding, near the top of the inside. Falling a considerable distance, it lodged in the narrow space, which did not permit it to use its wings in rising again. Its plaints had reached the mother, and she, not being able to reach it from the inside, had cut through from the out. An admiring man thrust his hand through the hole and brought out the fluttering young thing, much to the great delight of the anxious mamma bird.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

AMUSING INDOOR GAME.

Parlor Croquet is a Good Diversion for Rainy Days When Outdoor Sport Is Impossible.

You have all played croquet on the lawn with mallet and ball and many of you, probably, are skillful players, even though you may not have mastered the game scientifically. After a romp in the fields you are glad to come back to the garden for a quiet game, in which ever so many of you may play at one time. We have here a game of croquet, but it is somewhat different from the ordinary game. It is an indoor game, a diversion for rainy days when outdoor games are out of the question.

First of all you must manufacture a "lawn," which may consist of a smooth oblong board with a rather deep frame, or you may simply make a wooden frame and fasten it to a table. Cover this lawn, as we call it, smoothly with green. cloth or felt, then make wickets of wire and secure them to the lawn as shown in the illustration, running in a stake at each end, just as in a real game of croquet. A number is given each wicket, and the player who scores

the highest number within a certain number of shots is the winner of the

Instead of mallets, use the hands, the balls being small enough to be held easily between the fingers. Place the ball between the bent thumb and the first finger, which is crooked to hold the ball, and with the thumb send the ball out over the lawn with a snap sufficient to give it speed. The wickets marked with the highest numbers are so placed as to be rather difficult to reach, and the effort to reach them lends interest to the game. It requires a steady and a sure aim to play this game well, for it is not quite as easy as it looks. You could roll the balls, if you like, but snapping them as first described gives more life to the game.

As many as like may play at this indoor game, and it will be well to have the balls of different color. I wonder which sort of croquet my little people will prefer? No doubt you will all agree in declaring that both are amusing. But, of course, you are glad to have learned a new game.—Butterick's Delineator.

Rabbit Brought Him Luck.

While fishing for bess in a Minnesota ake, with no success, the man in the boat saw a rabbit swimming for dear life. The fisherman reached out and lifted It into the boat, and with a piece of twine tied it to the seat. It sat in the aun, perfectly quiet, shivering a little until it got dry, and then it went to sleep. He kept it in the boat during the remainder of the afternoon. "Talk about the hind foot of a graveyard rabbiti" said he. "No such luck as a live, four-footed rabbit. Rase began to bits, and I landed 16." When he reached the shore the rabbit was released, and, only stopping to give him a wink of thanks, it disappeared in the

SIMPLE WATER WHEEL

An Example of What a Skilled Mochanic Can Do with Poor and Limited Facilities.

Many machines, like lathes, churns and sewing machines, are operated by hand or foot power; but if a man bas a small stream of water at his disposal. and possesses a certain amount of ingenuity, he can make a wheel that will utilize the power of his stream, and keep it at work, if he so desires, in h.s. absence. A correspondent of the Iron Age tells the editor of that publication of a motor which he constructed recently. He says that he lived in a city where he could get water, but not electricity. From the latter remark it is to be inferred that he would have bought a small electric motor if he had only enjoyed the means for driving it. His homemade wheel was about seven inches in diameter, not counting the buckets, which were an inch and a half long, radially. The body of the wheel was four inches thick, and the backets were of that height, therefore. The wheel was of sheet iron, soldered at the joints. To drive it he had a fall equal to 40 feet, but admitted only a small jet. For this purpose he inserted a nozzel taken from a large oil can. To get the best effect, he incased his wheel. and then set the nozzle in the casing at the proper angle. On the further side of the casing, of course, he had an outlet pipe, which discharged into a basin, and this into a drain. As he got not more than a twelfth of a horse-power. it hardly seems as if the work was worth doing. Still be considers himself re-; aid by the willity of his motor. The case is worth putting on record, not for precise imitation, perhaps, but as an example of what may be done with poor

RAPID FIRE GUNS.

What Distinguishes Them from the Slow-Fire Cannon in Use Ten and More Years Ago.

Rapid-fire guns are just now much talked about, but most people have only a vague idea of what they are. Probably the general idea is based on the Gatling gun. People who take the Gatling gun as a type of "rapid fire" suppose that all guns called by that name are merely machines for showering rifle balls. But this is a complete mistake. There are rapid-fire guns with a diameter of six inches that throw shells weighing 100 pounds. Mere size has nothing to do with the classification into rapid fire and slow-firing guns.

The essential difference is the method of loading. Instead of opening the breech and inserting the projectile and the powder separately, the latter in a bunning bag, ammunition for rapidfire gues is now prepared as for small arms, the ball, powder and firing primer are united, the powder in a metallic case attached to the shot, and the primer in the center of the base of this case. There are a number of types of rapid-fire guns, differing in the way this fixed ammunition is fed to the gun and fired. The six-pounder (2.24-inch caliber) rapid-fire guns of the Hotchkiss, Driggs-Schroeder, Maxim, Nordenfeldt and Sponsel types can discharge 100 shots in four minutes and twentysix seconds, four minutes thirty-five and one-half seconds, four minutes forty-one seconds and four minutes fiftysix and one-half seconds, respectively, or 20 to 25 shots per minute, with accuracy of aim. Without attempt at accuracy of aim the rate can be increased to 30 to 35 shots per minute. With fiveinch rapid-fire guns, or 50-pounders, 36 shots have been fired in five minutes .-Engineering News.

VALUABLE COMPARISON.

Facts About Relative Strength and Length of Limbs in Man and Woman Clearly Stated.

According to the last report of the doings of the anthropometric laboratory, London, the following interesting data were established concerning the relative strength and length of limbs in man and woman, viz.: In man, in 50.9 cases out of 100, the right arm was stronger than the left; in 16.4 cases the arms were each of equal strength; finally, in 32.7 cases out of 100, the left arm was the stronger. Thus it seems, contrary to the general understanding of this subject, that out of every ten men there are more than three whose right arm is not so strong as the left. The data show, however, that the proportion is better distributed in women-that is, out of 100 only 46.9 possessed more strength in the right arm and 24.5, or near one-fourth, have more strength in the left. Dynamometric experiments have likewise proved that in women the upper limbs possess the same strength much oftener than in men. since out of 100 there are 28.6 that gave the same results in the two arms. As regards the respective length of the limbs, it seems that in most cases the right arm and the left leg are the longer. the following proportions being noted at the laboratory in measuring 50 skeletons of adults, men and women: In A cases the left leg and the right arm were the longer; in eight cases it was, on the contrary, the right leg and the left arm, and in 4 cases only the limbs of the right side were longer than those of

MAILLSIDE CEMETERY CORPORATION

The Cametery Turned Over To It by Secriver Luckey-Plans of the New ianagement.

"Acceiver Luckey on June 30 transferred Paside Cometery to Hillside Cemetery ecoration, the new organization woed by the lot owners to take charge has property.

the directors of the corporation are: eirectors-Geo. E. Beakes, Jas. M. erton, Ira L. Case for three years; Jas. Sarding, E. T. Hanford, J. A. Howell, two years; J. E. Iseman, Geo. Smith e. A. Clark, for one year. he officers are:

resident-Ira L. Case. Vice President-J. E. Iseman. Treasurer-Geo. E. Beakes. Secretary-Jas. G. Harding.

Committee on Supervision-Jas. A. Clark, Geo. Smith, J. A. Howell. For the present the books and maps will be sound at the office of the president, No. 18 North street. The directors will at all times be pleased to give any information in their power relative to cometery matters.

Receiver Luckey had charge of the cemetery a little over two years, and during that time did much good and effective work in the way of improving the drives and trimming the trees and shrubbery. He has also kept the lots in better condition than ever before. The property is turued cver to the new corporation in excellent shape, and the new officers propose many improvements, first- and foremost of which will be the erection of a new fence on the westerly and southerly sides-a work which is imperatively necessary to prevent the desecration of the cemetery.

A PATRIOTIC SKIPPER.

WASHINGTON, June 30.-A second case of an attempt to transfer coal from an American vessel to a Spanish merchantman in Mexico has brought out the oldtime pluck of an American sea captain. The 600 ton American schooner Clara A. Phinney of New Bedford some days ago was authorized to clear with 700 tons of coal from Mobile to Vera Cruz on affidavits of reliable citizens of Mobile that the coal was destined for railroad purposes. On reaching Vera Cruz, Captain Phinney was directed by L. Jonblanc, his consignee, to place his vessel alongside the Spanish steamer Maria Herrara Spanish sympathizers Captain Phinney bluntly refused, declaring with emphasis that no vessel in his charge should ever lie alongside a ship bearing the flag of his country's enemy, much less supply her with even a pound of coal. The captain, with a crowd at his heels, marched to the American consulate and notified the consul, and wrote at once to General Spaulding, acting secretary, that he had placed himself under American protection. Exports of coal to Mr. Jonblanc of Vera Cruz will cease, and the department will undertake to fix responsibility and punishment for the

JULY Offerings in Summer Goods!

This is the time of year when the shopping public is looking for just such bargains as we are enumerating in the columns below. There is no necessity for us to dwell upon the merits of the values we quote. We leave it to an unprejudiced public to judge for themselves. All we can say in their favor is that they are gotten by careful buying with the spot cash; that counts more than anything else at this time of the year with importers, jobbers and manufacturers. Just now you will find tempting prices on all lines of goods all over the store.
